

ABOUT OUR People

THURSDAY.

Zeb Arledge shows steady improvement, his friends will be glad to know.

Miss D. Vause, Fruitland Institute's capable teacher of music, was in town yesterday.

Miss Sadie Robinson of Orangeburg, S. C., who has been visiting the Misses Burckmeyer will return home this evening.

Mrs. Sarah Egerton, mother of our popular physician, Dr. J. L. Egerton, left yesterday to visit relatives in Asheville.

"Florence" the handsome thoroughbred owned by Mr. Avery Gates has arrived from Greenville for entrance to the Fore Show on the 25th.

Letters will no longer be cancelled by hand at the postoffice. This morning a cancelling machine was received from the postoffice department at Washington, which will do the work more quickly by far.

Mrs. F. D. Genovar, of Jacksonville, Fla., accompanied by her son Frank are at "The Summer Home." Mrs. Genovar has been coming to Hendersonville and this well known house for three years past and will remain here until after Christmas.

J. D. Boone, former editor of the Waynesville Courier is a visitor in the city today. "Jessie" is quite a base ball crank and, of course, banks on the Waynesville team. He, however, admits that the Hendersonville boys are making it mighty interesting for 'em.

Among the late arrivals at the Hotel Gates are Dr. Eben Alexander and wife of Chapel Hill. Dr. Alexander is professor of Greek in the State University. He was Minister to Greece under former President Grover Cleveland.

Editor A. Roscower, of the Goldsboro Headlight arrived yesterday afternoon with his family for an indefinite sojourn in this city. They are guests of the Hotel Gates. Mr. Roscower expresses great surprise at the remarkable growth of Hendersonville since his last visit here six years ago.

T. K. Davis, the capable machinist of the Charlotte Observer, is in Hendersonville for a short stay. Mrs. Davis is with relatives in Asheville for the summer and Mr. Davis will spend awhile there before returning to his post of duty. Tom looks fine and friends will be glad to hear that the health of Mrs. Davis has greatly improved.

Henry Egiston, a negro, was arrested yesterday at the Southern depot by Chief McCarron and Deputy Sheriff Powers upon a warrant sworn out by the authorities of Landrum, S. C. The negro, who certainly looks to be a desperate one, is wanted in that place for knocking down a policeman with a rock.

It has been rumored in the city of Asheville that the Hendersonville Planets will have a considerable shake-up in the lineup after the Carolina Association closes. It is even reported that some of the best players in that league will sign up with Hendersonville. The local authorities have not confirmed any such report and it is not likely that they will until the men have been secured.

Hon. A. Cannon, who was in the city yesterday, says the Farmer's Institute held at Fletcher last week was a very interesting and profitable event, being largely attended by the farmers and their wives from various sections of the county. Mr. Cannon compliments the farmers of Hooper's Creek upon the interest they are taking in improved methods of farming. He says they have the largest club in the county.

G. W. Blacknall, of Raleigh, representing the Frederick Ludwick Company, New York, importers and roasters of the famous possum brand coffee is a guest at the Hotel Gates. Mr. Blacknall is working this trade through Slayden-Fakes and Company and is "on to his job" all right. His demonstrations are at once interesting and the brand of coffee he handles is highly commended wherever it has been introduced. It is a winner and guaranteed to please.

FRIDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Boyd of Savannah are stopping at Mrs. C. E. Wilson's.

Ossie Orr and Paul Rhinehart were each fined one cent and costs, yesterday, by Mayor Staton, for disturbance.

Mrs. Turner of Chimney Rock is spending a few days in town, Mr. Turner returning to Florida on business yesterday.

Mrs. R. L. Ambler and son, and Mrs. W. D. Parrish, all of Greenville, S. C., have returned home after spending two weeks at Mrs. C. E. Wilson's.

Nannie Lathan and Mandy Sly, both colored, argued and then fit at the depot yesterday. Mayor Staton found Nannie guilty, while Mandy was acquitted.

Mister Weaver, colored, wanted by Chapel Hill authorities employed at Kanuga Lake, skipped and has gone when hearing that local authorities were after him.

Miss Rosamond Jenkins, a charming young lady from Charleston, S. C., has returned home after a stay of several weeks at Mrs. J. M. Pender's on the French Broad River.

Mrs. W. C. Goodwin, of Traveler's Rest, S. C., is at Mrs. C. E. Wilson's. Mrs. Goodwin is an old and valued subscriber to the Hustler and reads it clear through—advertisements and all!

Mr. J. B. Garrard has returned to his home in Ocean Springs, Miss., after having spent the past six weeks in the country at Mrs. Pender's. Mrs. Garrard and the children will remain until the first of September.

Miss Annie McCarver, who with Miss Norma Bryson has been spending the past few weeks here, returns to her home in Charlotte on Sunday. Miss Bryson will remain in town until Sept. 1.

Mr. J. R. McGee, a popular real estate man of Spartanburg, has arrived in the city and is the guest of the Blue Ridge Inn. Mr. McGee is interested in selling Hyman Heights lots. His big machine will arrive here in a day or so.

Mr. J. D. Waldrop, who has the sale of packing space for the coming Horse Show, says that tickets are going very fast. Those who have not yet been supplied can get same by calling on Miss Sadie Smathers or J. D. Waldrop.

SATURDAY

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. John Bishop this morning, a boy.

Rev. James Lyday of Liberty, N. C., was in the city today.

Prof. Merchant of Dana is among the visitors in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Whistler were sued yesterday by M. J. Case for $76 said to be due on contract for new house erected by him. Defendants alleged leaky condition of roof as reason for withholding the amount. The squire rendered judgment for Case in the sum of $56.00 and costs.

G. W. Blacknall, that clever salesman of Raleigh, had an experience yesterday which might have resulted seriously but which finally ended up in costing him only $1.50. He drove out to Flat Rock and on his way home the buggy in which he was riding broke in two. His driver D. N. Presley pitched headlong over the dashboard but hung onto the lines and soon stopped the frightened horse. Mr. Blacknall kept his seat and hunting up a liveryman at Flat Rock paid him $1.50 to bring him safe to town.

No news of any kind has been received of Lewis Hyder, who recently escaped from the officers while being taken to Raleigh. He may be dead.

MONDAY.

Mrs. T. R. Goodloe is slightly better.

Miss Juno Morris is home from Knoxville.

Mrs. Maggie Staggs and her three little sons are visiting relatives and friends in Brevard this week.

H. M. Flynn's store at the depot, was broken into Saturday night and shoes, shirts, etc. were taken. No clue.

Hon. R. H. Zachary and wife, of Brevard, passed through Hendersonville this morning enroute to Whittier, where they will visit Mrs. Zachary's parents.

Pastor Hill of Norfolk, Va., preached at the Baptist Church last night and his congregation heard one of the finest sermons ever delivered in Hendersonville.

Sheriff Blackwell says: "You are getting out a good paper—lots of news—and I enjoy reading it."

Mr. and Mr. Joseph Bishop, of Route 2, have returned from a pleasant visit to Mr. Bishop's people in Saluda.

W. H. Tinsman will leave today or Wednesday for Pennsylvania, where he will join Mrs. Tinsman, and will return to town about Oct. 15.

J. P. Case, the contractor, will leave tomorrow on the Atlantic City excursion and will visit New York and Philadelphia before returning home. Mrs. Case will go with him and will visit relatives in Burlington, Vermont, whom she has not seen in some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sales and their little son are in the city from Fletcher today. Claude is working the trade, while his wife and little boy are visiting friends. The large number of votes cast by the supporters of Mrs. Sales during the last three days of the past week would indicate that they have an idea of seeing that diamond ring on her finger soon after the contest closes. It is rumored that the Fletcherites are going to do some heavy voting later on.

Railroad Ties Higher.

Mr. T. B. Carson, as a result of his recent conference with Southern Railway officials in Washington, is authorized to announce an advance of three cents each in the price of railroad ties on both the main line and the Brevard railroad.

It rained just six drops Saturday—no more!—and so Judge Pace has saved his reputation as a weather prophet.

The Few Family.

The following from the Little Rock, (Ark.) Gazette will be read with interest by just "lots" of people in Hendersonville and Henderson county:

"Rev. B. A. Few, pastor of the Methodist church, South, at Magnolia, is visiting in Little Rock and has just returned from a three weeks' vacation in Greenville county, South Carolina, where he and his brother, Rev. A. C. Few of Carlisle, attended a reunion of the Few family on August 4. There were a large attendance of the Few descendants.

The family is descended from James Few, who is said to have been the first martyr to American Independence, as he was killed by the Tories at Old Manse, N. C., May 16, 1771. James Few was a brother to W. M. Few, who was one of the first senators from Georgia, and also a brother to Ignatius Few, a prominent Methodist minister of Georgia, who founded Emory College at Oxford, Ga. W. M. Few, the only son of James Few, settled in South Carolina and was the father of a large family.

Among those who attended the reunion were: Dr. W. P. Few, dean of Trinity College, Durham, N. C.; Dr. C. Few of Hendersonville, N. C.; Dr. Ben Few of South Carolina and Dr. L. H. Corman of Washington, D. C., who married into the Few family.

In addition to attending the reunion, Rev. B. A. Few and his brother, Rev. A. P. Few, conducted a successful revival at the Few chapel in Greenville county. The church was erected by their great grandfather, W. M. Few, and in the church members of the Few family have worshipped for more than 100 years.

Shot While Hunting.

The 16-year old son of John Hill, Zirconia, was shot, Saturday, by Hilliard Tabor, about the same age, with whom he was hunting.

The boy is not seriously wounded and will recover.

They were hunting squirrels, and were in a corn field at the time. Tabor mistook his companion's head for a squirrel, and emptied his gun in that direction. About 40 bird shot took effect in the boy's head, neck and shoulder. Dr. Kirk was summoned, made a quick trip there and says the boy will recover.

The usual Saturday night ball at Hotel Gates was a decided success. The ball room was all aglow with smiling faces enjoying the dancing to their hearts' content.

Capt. and Mrs. J. J. White with Miss Beula White of McComb, Miss., are stopping at the Wheeler Hotel for awhile. They have been to Lake Toxaway for the past month.

The big Buick touring car owned by the Hendersonville Realty Company has arrived in the city. Messrs. C. P. Mims and J. F. White came through the country with the machine from Greenville, S. C.

It was a sight to see the many visitors lined up in front of the postoffice this morning, waiting for their turn to call for the mail. During the busy season the office is certainly pushed to its utmost capacity.

Many new entries were registered for the coming Horse Show by the secretary this morning. A number of fine horses have already arrived in the city for the show, and are being seen on the city's main thoroughfare every day.

Claude Brown offers $500.00 in gold to the person buying his country home on or before Aug. 28. This, in addition to the $100 daily being taken from the price of the superb property.
